SMART CITIES IN A CONNECTED WORLD

NOVEMBER 7, 2017 | CORNELL UNIVERSITY | ITHACA, NY

Learn about the latest Smart City trends from multiple perspectives including government, academia, investors, corporations, and start-ups.

Hear what opportunities investors are seeking, what challenges are yet to be solved, and how entrepreneurs are positioning to solve them.

Be a part of the dialog with ample networking breaks and active Q&A.

Join us at Cornell University this fall for our annual Partnership Forum with thought-leading talks on the trends that will help clear your path to success in this new emerging ecosystem.
